

POWR RECRUIT Player Bio Builder

A professional hockey recruiting system for players and parents who want clear presentation, better organization, and a cleaner process.

Prepare • Present • Get Noticed • Play Higher

Write a Clear Personal Statement

Structure: Intro → Play style → Strengths → Character → Goals.

Prompt questions

- What kind of player are you?
- What are your strongest traits?
- What do coaches rely on you for?
- What are you working to improve?
- What are your hockey goals?
- What off-ice qualities matter?

Bio formula

[Name] is a [position] from [hometown] currently playing for [team/league].

He/She is a [style] player known for [2–3 strengths]. Coaches rely on them for [trust details].

Off the ice, [name] brings [character traits]. Right now, [name] is working on [focus] while pursuing [goal].

Sample forward bio

Ethan is a two-way forward who plays with pace and detail. Coaches rely on him to pressure the puck, support the rush, and finish around the net.

Draft your bio

INTRO

PLAY STYLE

STRENGTHS

CHARACTER

GOALS
